CHAMBER SCORES OUTSTANDING SUCCESS WITH LINDO PARK PICNIC

C. OF C. WINS HIGH SUCCESS WITH PICNIC

LARGEST TURNOUT IN GROUP'S HISTORY IS ATTRACTED TO PARK

Reporting the largest turnout the Chamber of Commerce has ever had President Allen G. Mitchell states that the picnic in Lindo Park Wednesday evening was a grand success. It was given in honor of the families of members and there were 150 present.

A delicious dinner was served. Mrs. Eva Smith and Mrs. R. E. Christy assisted Mrs. Mitchell who was in charge of this important and tasty detail. Fine entertainment was arranged by Secretary N. Sands but due to his unavoidable absence Stanley Conant, Jerry Morris and Arthur Graham carried on and did a fine job.

SPORTING EVENTS KEENLY CONTESTED

There was a fine list of events and keen contests. These may be summarized as follows:

Three-legged race for boys won by Harold Shockey and Carl Cooper; Raymond Keeler and Donald Nelson second; prizes ice cream and cake.

Gunny sack race for girls won by Ella May Money, prize a fat watermelon.

Gunny sack race for boys won by George Simpson; prize a jack knife donated by Bob Swearengin.

Grandma's sack race a tie between Otis Barker and I. C. Cooper.

The slipper kicking contest was won by Mrs. John Angel; prize a pound of that fine bacon donated by Jerry Morris of the Cudahy Packing Co.

Boys saw horse race won by Richard Nelson; prize a flashlight donated by Mr. Lake.

The Hoss Race Special brought out some of Lakeside's prominent business men and produced lots of fun. Jockey

Lakeside Woman Wins At Farm-Home Social

That big hamper, full of lovely linen, which was the chief prize at the Farm Bureau and Home Department social held at the Sequoia Club in San Diego Saturday night, came to Lakeside. Mrs. Wallace Phillips received the award. For a moment Mrs. George Gibson of Lakeside Farms hoped she might get it but she was just one figure off. However she and all the other Lakesiders present were mighty glad to see the hamper go to Mrs. Phillips.

The Lakeside Home Department people helped the social considerably. They filled five tables and certainly contributed their share toward the success of the evening.

MEMBERS INVITED TO FORM CAMERA CLUB

Several amateur photographers here have expressed pleasure at the suggestion made by Arthur Graham that a Lakeside Camera Club be formed. However before the preliminary steps can be taken it will be necessary to obtain a suitable number of members. Mr. Graham therefore asks that persons interested in the forming of such a club to contact him at the Farmer office.

Those who responded to the notice published two weeks ago expressed the opinion that such a club here would be very helpful. They were quite enthusiastic over the proposal. Amateur camera fans here are therefore again asked to join with others in forming a club. Mr. Graham will be glad to discuss the matter with them.

Mr. Graham now has entry blanks ready so come in and sign up.

INDIAN FIESTA WILL BE HELD AT BARONA

NATIVE AMERICANS ARRANGE PROGRAM ON RESERVATION

Announcement is made of a real Indian Fiesta to be held on the Barona reservation seven miles northeast of Lakeside, starting next Friday, August 11. There will be programs on August 12, 13, 18, 19 and 20. Meals and other refreshments will be served on the grounds.

The fiesta will start with a picturesque flag-raising ceremony during which the National Anthem, The Star Spangled Banner, will be sung by a group of Barona Indians.

Chief Sam White Cloud, who will be Master of Ceremonies, reports that proceedings on August 12 will open with High Mass conducted at the chapel on the reservation by the Rev. G. Gallacher at 9:30 a.m. In the afternoon there will be primitive native dances by Chief Viddal Mojado and a group of Indians. The evening will be devoted to dancing in the pavilion and with games of all kinds.

FRANK SEAGAR WILL BE INITIATED

Of much interest will be the program on August 13. It will open in the morning with religious services. Then at 2 p.m. Frank Seagar will be initiated into the Barona Indian group "in our primitive way." Following that will be a gomi race by Indian men, an Indian pony race and foot races. Dancing and games at night.

August 18 should be a day of much interest to white people, the committee in charge believes. It will open with tribal Indian dances. The feature for August 19, will be a baseball game.

High Mass will start the proceedings on the concluding day, August 20. In the afternoon another baseball game will be played and then, at 4 p.m., there will be a bull riding contest and roping. Dancing at the pavilion, followed by Indian dances, will wind up what should be a most enjoyable fiesta. The committee in charge which includes Ramon Ames, Richard and Bill Banegas and Viddal Mojado says: "White friends, come to this real Indian Fiesta and enjoy yourselves among your native Americans; get acquainted and learn more about their ways."

School Opening Set Forward One Week

In co-operation with Grossmont High School, the date of opening for Lakeside Union Elementary School has been set forward, to Tuesday, September 5, the next day following Labor Day, reports District Supt. E. H. Carender.

Work is progressing on the new kindergarten rooms, the old second grade room, southwest of the auditorium, being remodeled to accommodate the new youngsters. The kindergarten age is 4½ to 5½ years. Those who will be six years old on or before March 5, 1940, will enter the first grade. Mrs. Yake of San Diego, has been secured by the board of trustees for the position of kindergarten teacher.

New Vote Urged on San Vicente Dam

Of interest in Lakeside is the recommendation made by the San Diego Water Commission that the question of issuing San Vicente dam construction bonds be again submitted to the electors. City Manager Fred Rhodes says it is time San Diego again started moving forward with its major water development plan.

DISCUSS FARM PROBLEMS

* Farm problems came in for some interesting discussion recently, when State Director of Agriculture W. B. Parker appeared on the NBC sustaining program California Agriculture as guest speaker of the California State Fair Board, and "Bill" Ayres, Grange Director Parker is shown above, center, with Eunice L. Peterson, secretary of the State Grange and only woman ever to serve on the California State Fair Board, and "Bill" Ayres, Grange News editor who is commentator on the monthly Grange program. The Grange is featured on California Agriculture at 12:00 noon the second Friday of each month.

Are You Registered? Must Be to Vote on Ham and Eggs Plan

Residents of Lakeside and vicinity are being urged to check whether their names are on the Voters List. If not the advice is Register now.

It's easy. All you have to do is go to Rocchio's Drug Store, get the form filled out and sign it. Your vote may count for a great deal on November 7, the day of the special election on the ham and eggs plan.

Voters who did not cast a ballot at either the primary election last August or at the General Election in November, or who have moved to another district since then, are not eligible to vote this November unless they register by September 28. If you fall in this classification, wise foresight advises, "Register now!"

To the familiar shrug, and indifferent remark of many people, "Why should I bother? What possible difference can one vote make?" History itself provides eloquent answer. A single vote, more than once, has turned the tide of great events.

It was one vote that elected Cromwell lord protector of England and sent Charles I to the scaffold, breaking for good the power of monarchy in Britain. It was one vote that made California a member of the Union and launched a great migration into a new frontier of America. It was one vote in the electoral college that elected a president of the United States in 1876.

Your ballot can decide the November 7 election. Register now.

Electrically Driven Pumps Make Record

Here's a record for electrically driven pumps which is commanding attention in San Diego county. Six such pumps were installed eight years ago on Rancho San Luis Rey, "the Home of the Thoroughbred." Charles E. Cooper says that in eight years the repair bill has amounted to only $250. San Diego Gas & Electric Co. supplies the power.

HERE'S FAIR PROPOSITION ON BEHALF OF LAKESIDE CHURCH

You Are Asked To Pay Your Fare Toward Maintaining One Of The Greatest Assets of this Community

BY THE REV. T. I. NALBACH

"Are you going to the fair?" Then you must have the fare! Someone said the other day, "We must have a church in this community!" That is a reasonable proposition for the church is one of the community's greatest assets. But it is a fare proposition too.

Now about the fare. The money for our Lakeside Community Church is raised by voluntary gifts. There are no assessments nor pew rents. There are no endowments. At the beginning of each year certain people agree to give to the Lord accordingly as the Lord has prospered them. Thus the Church received its fare.

These regular gifts are not large for they only enable the church to pay its running expenses. If one or two pledges fall behind, that money must be raised in some other way if possible. Or if the pledges fall behind, the church must wait until that money comes in that its bills may be paid. The monthly expenses of the Ladies Aid society alone run over $25.00. You see, there is lots of fare involved.

The church cannot be kept looking as the community would like if it raises only enough for running expenses. There are always special things needing to be done. Three years ago, the community generously gave enough for a coat of paint. At another time, money was given for the improvement of the church lawn. (There was a time when three scythes were broken over the weeds and cans in the church yard). At another time money was raised for a church heating plant. These special objects are ones in which we all share because we all see the need. Our next special object for which we call for special gifts is to be the roofing fund. We want to protect the gains which we have already made.

If we all play fair, with the Church, with the community, with the Lord, we will see how necessary these things are and gladly "pay fare."

Parent-Teacher Group Announces Contest For Home Play Centers in This District

Traveling around Lakeside an observer will see in the gardens of a few homes what have been termed backyard playgrounds for the children. In one there is a merrygoround, in others there are badminton courts, sand boxes and outdoor gyms.

Aiming to encourage San Diego county families to build playgrounds in their backyards the Ninth District Parent-Teacher association is sponsoring a Home Play Center contest. Rules are announced this week by Mrs. Mildred T. Hale of San Diego, PTA president and a director of the County Coordinating Councils.

"The cost of constructing a home play center is nominal," says Mrs. Hale. Plans to help may be obtained from the County Coordinating Councils, County Courthouse, San Diego. This contest is open to any family in Lakeside. It will close midnight, September 20. For those who wish to enter the

TWO HUNDRED ATTEND FUNCTION THAT BOOSTS COMMUNITY PLAN

PROJECT INVOLVES DEVELOPMENT OF GROUNDS AND IMPROVEMENT OF OLD GRAMMAR SCHOOL BUILDING FOR BENEFIT OF COMMUNITY

Hailed as a very gratifying success by the committee in charge was the benefit dinner and dance given on Friday evening of last week at the old Grammar School grounds in favor of the Civic Center project.

CHILDREN CHEER SWEET ACTION OF BOB SWEARENGIN

Bob Swearengin, won popularity among the youngsters who accompanied their parents to the benefit dinner dance held at the old Grammar School last Friday night.

Bob remembers that when he was a youngster he had a sweet tooth; maybe he still has it. Anyhow there was a man at the dinner who was selling candy. Bob bought the entire supply and told the man to distribute the sweets among all the children present—and there was quite a few.

Did the youngsters appreciate this action? You bet your boots, or anything else you like, that they did.

Passing of Pioneer Wallace Mansur is Much Mourned Here

Lakeside lost a much respected oldtimer on July 31 when Wallace Mansur, husband of Mrs. Etta Mansur and father of Mrs. Paul Scheller, passed to his rest. Tributes to his memory were heard on all sides after the news of his death became known.

"He was one of the finest men that ever lived," declared L. G. Scott of Kibby and Scott who had known him since 1924. "Mr. Mansur was a quiet and reserved man of strong principles and ever anxious to do the right thing," added Mr. Scott. He declared that Mr. Mansur would not take advantage of any man and he "would always give for the other fellow as far as possible."

Similar tributes were paid at the services held yesterday morning in a funeral chur in San Diego. The Rev. Thomas I. Nalbach, pastor of the Lakeside Community Church, officiated, assisted by Dr. Francis De Weese, an old friend of Mr. Mansur. They were merchants together here in the early days. Internment was at Mt. Hope.

Mr. Mansur was a pioneer here in the oil station business. At one time he owned the Shell Oil Station and later the station now conducted by Mr. Butler. He was unable to take an active part in civic affairs but was always greatly interested in matters concerning the progress and development of the community.

In addition to his wife and daughter Mr. Mansur leaves the following relatives: Mrs. Laura Wright, sister, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. May Jones, sister, Santa Barbara; J. C. Slack and Mrs. George Belcher, Boston; Fred Mansur, Connecticut.

LAKESIDE POSTOFFICE RECEIVES HIGH RATING

While Postmaster Thomas F. Helm was in San Diego last Friday the Post Office Inspector came to Lakeside. He was still here when Mr. Helm returned and he had good news for the local official, namely that he was able to give Lakeside Post Office a rating of 99.6, or almost 100 per cent. Congratulations have been extended to the postmaster on this excellent showing; also on the addition to the building. He says they are still trying to get settled, especially in the back of the office.

The committee reports that close to 200 people turned out to show their interest in the proposal to help build up "an adequate center where all civic organization may enjoy housing and other facilities for their particular activities and can cooperate toward the maintenance of a center where all activities can blend in undertakings for the general public good."

The members of the committee state that they are very grateful to all who attended and contributed to this success. They are particularly appreciative of the fine cooperation of John Angel, manager of the Safeway Store; Otis Barker of the Allied Food Store, John Rocchio of the Lakeside Pharmacy, Cecil Carender of Cecil's Cafe, Lorayne Lake, Ervin Major, Fred Prindle of Prindle and son market, Ray Gavin, Hages Dairy of San Diego and the Arden Dairy of San Diego.

THANKS EXTENDED TO COMMUNITY MINDED

Also to Mr. and Mrs. Noel Sands of The Lakeside Farmer Dewey Buckel, Mrs. Buckel and their entire family, Mr. and Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Genevieve Barker, Josephine Fair, Mrs. Clymer, Dorothy Morton, Bessie Foster, Claire Foster, Mabel Haley, Mrs. Maude Conant, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Belch, Bob Grimes, Messrs. Smith and Hayes, Bob Swearengin of Lakeside Supply Co., Arthur Foster and Clarence Foster of Foster Bros. Dairy and the many other people who by their attendance showed they are community minded.

The Committee feels that these people are particularly conscious of the possibilities for developing the grounds and building of the Old Grammar School into an adequate facility which can be made a credit to the Lakeside area.

It is hoped by the committee that there may be other benefits of a similar nature in the near future to help forward this plan for a community center.

Monterey Trainees Return to Homes

Ended is the Citizens Military Training Camp and the 1200 trainees, including Robert E. Barnhart and Norman E. Palmer of Lakeside, have returned to their homes from the Presidio of Monterey after a month of military instruction, athletics, recreation and citizenship training.

Barnhart, who was a platoon leader in Co. D, completed his Blue course which carries eligibility for a commission in the Officers Reserve Corps. Blues are men who have trained for four summer periods of one month each in the camp. Barnhart won a medal as a first class pistol shot.

Palmer finished in the Basic course, which is the name given the first period of training. He was in Co. G. He won recognition in fencing and was elected captain of the team.

Speaking of the objects of the Citizens Military Training Camp Public Relations officer James S. Hughes, Captain O.R.C., says:

"Those who know war abhor it. The CMTC does not produce militarists. It does inculcate a realistic appreciation of preparedness, its necessity and its difficulty. Military training is the foundation of the CMTC program but its primary purpose is creation of American citizens who understand American institutions and are able to defend them if need be."

THE LIGHT IN THE TOWER

High up in the lighthouse tower
I light my lamp at the darkling hour,
And ever and ever as ships go by,
They bless the lamp in my tower on high.

There's a song about lighthouses which was written long ago; a verse of it floated into one's memory when we read the other day that Lighthouse Week has been proclaimed by President Roosevelt. It starts next Monday. From August 7 to 12 people are asked to bear in mind that this is the 150th anniversary of the founding of the United States Lighthouse Service. It was the first of the Federal Government's service agencies to be established in this country, they say.

In days of storm we used to sing in Sunday School the words, O hear us when we cry to Thee for those in peril on the sea. The Lighthouse Service lessens that peril. Great revolving lights flash warnings to mariners to beware of danger. Competent men keep watch throughout the night to see that the great lights are always going.

The Lighthouse Service was recently consolidated with the Coast Guard and officials of that useful body have arranged ceremonies for Lighthouse Week.

SUMMER NIGHTS IN LAKESIDE

Seeing that it's summer in sunny Southern California, a season which is supposed to be rather dull around here, there is "plenty doing" in Lakeside. Take the past few nights for example. First there was that community gathering at which the proposal to convert the old grammar school into a civic center was the beneficiary. Then, Monday, we shifted from a town to a State affair and the Ham and Eggers held a meeting at the Lakeside Union Grammar School. That's a busy bunch of people. They want let you forget that their pension plan is to be voted on in November.

On Tuesday night our local citizens either stayed at home or went to the San Diego Symphony Concert, the theatre or elsewhere. But on Wednesday evening there were two more what you may call public functions. The chief one was the annual picnic which the Chamber of Commerce gives for the wives and children of members. This was held in our charming Lindo Park, with the moon silvering the waters of the lake. At the same time elder people of the community were attending a gathering called to organize a Townsend Club for this vicinity.

So the soft summer evenings in Lakeside the past week were nice nights of activity. If the Old Man in the Moon cast a look this way from his high home in the lunar mountains he must have said, well those people are quite busy for a little town.

THE PATH OF WISDOM

What is the path of wisdom? To dream with one eye open; to be detached from the world without being hostile to it; to welcome fugitive beauties and pity fugitive sufferings without forgetting for a moment how fugitive they are. — George Santayana.

A radio announcer who conducts a question and answer column was asked by one man: "What shall I do; my son wants to be an auto racer?" "Don't stand in his way," was the answer.

SING A SONG OF ZINNIAS

Rhymers have written reams about roses, they have gone daffy about daffodils: Daffy-down Dilly has come to town In a yellow petticoat and a green gown.

Poets too have praised the peony and roused raptures over tulips. The humble daisy has also had its singers for did not old Chaucer say:

Of all the floures in the mede
Love I most those floures white and rede
Such that men call daisies in our town.

But who will sing a song of zinnias, those humble flowers that adorn a patch of good brown earth just outside our writing room? The ground was carefully prepared weeks ago by the lady of the house. Evening after evening she watered it. And then last week came the miracle. Flowers of all the colors of the rainbow adorned that patch of soil, despite the bugs which share the land but pay no rent.

For some reason or other writers, more or less eminent, have spoken rather scornfully of zinnias. But to us that little bed outside the window is very sweet. It is the result of moments snatched from newspaper office and household work. Zinnias may be low flowers as compared with those wonderful oleanders, white and pink, across the road, or with graceful columbines in whose heart, a poet said, two twin turtle doves dwell, but they gladden the sight even of one who has to wear spectacles rimmed with tortoise-shell.

Let's tell you a charming little story about zinnias. It appeared in the Christian Science Monitor and reads as follows:

At a recent Pioneer Day reunion at "The End of the Santa Fe Trail" in El Monte there was an Old Timer luncheon. One of the speakers was a woman who paid a tribute to an early pioneer. This woman was a little girl in those early days when the main street of the town was only a little cow trail, dusty and muddy by turns; when from necessity rather than choice the pioneers were rough and hard-working, with little of beauty or gentleness in their midst, but empire builders nonetheless.

Into this crude scene came one pioneer whose home and garden were always neat, clean, orderly. On each side of the path that led to his door he planted flowers that bloomed—zinnias they were. And this pioneer's voice and speech were gentle, and his smile was pleasant to see. Thus beauty and gentleness made their way into this little pioneer town at the end of the trail, bringing lasting benefit to all, especially to the children.

And so, on her return after many years to the gathering of the pioneers, this woman's most precious memory of the pioneer days of her childhood was the zinnias beside the path that led up to the home of William Haddox.

SWEETENING THE GRAPES

Editor Clem Whitaker of the California Feature Service of San Francisco writes: "Hellzapoppin," over the Hollywood screen version of "Grapes of Wrath." California doesn't like the idea of being the villain of the piece. And California farmers are saying things about the moving picture moguls that no one but George Bernard Shaw has dared to say before. As a result, Mr. Steinbeck is likely to have difficulty recognizing his own child, if it escapes being still-born - for there'll be no California crops in the picture, no California vigilantes and none of Mr. Steinbeck's profane phraseology. The grapes are being sweetened!

No war for the good old U. S. But let's be so well prepared that we can look every other nation in the eye and tell 'em to go to—Mars.

There are certain signs to know faithful friend from flattering foe.—Shakespeare.

There is too much animal courage in society and not sufficient moral courage.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Courage and perseverance have a magical talisman before which difficulties disappear and obstacles vanish.—John Quincy Adams.

Speaking against conscription an orator said that in time of danger the British people would rise as one man. "Yes, and they'd be about as much use," cried one of the audience.

MODERN WOMEN
by EARLENE WHITE
President of The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

It is gratifying to hear that Gabriela Mistral, who has gone as a consul to Nice, France, for her country, Chile, thinks the women of North America have been an inspiration to the women of South America in social work of all kinds. Social service work in her own country and elsewhere south of the equator is based upon our methods, according to her.

Senorita Mistral knows the United States quite well, for she was visiting lecturer in Spanish at Barnard College for the winter term in 1930-1931. Recently she was offered the appointment of Chilean Minister to Central American countries, but she declined on the ground that the work would interfere with her writing. Her first book was published by Columbia University. She is considered one of the foremost poets of the Spanish language.

Anni Voipio, of Finland, is an outstanding newspaper woman of northern Europe, and her editorials and splendid reporting for the Uusi Suomi, Finland's largest newspaper, have brought her fame on both sides of the Atlantic.

She is young, blonde, attractive and covers regular assignments in Swedish, French, German, English and Dutch. She is a graduate of the University of Helsinki and president of the Business and Professional Women of Finland. As the only woman reporter for her country she is here to cover the New York World's Fair, for which she received a state scholarship.

In a new study by the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor, exception is taken to a recent statement that discrimination between men's and women's wages is not a common practice. The Women's Bureau says that frequently women receive only 60 to 70 per cent as much as men.

Mrs. Susan Woodruff, who is 70, is in Europe to study the new type of woman that is developing there, particularly in Russia. She will bring back photographic records of the effect of Soviet schooling.

The Country Garden

By Margaret Tipton Wheatly
Chairman, Garden Section,
Lakeside Woman's Club.

GARDEN FASHIONS

Fashions in gardens come and go, but the garden in good style remains always so.

We have formal gardens, informal gardens, and in between these a galaxy of kinds and types too numerous to mention. Fashions in plants, yea, trees even, change. Our grandmother's garden had certain trees, but more particularly herbs and flowering plants because the mode of living called for certain scents. The romance of these old fashioned smells as well as the plants themselves is decidedly interesting and pleasant to ponder.

Rosemary for Remembrance

Of these old time symbols for flowers none have survived quite so distinctly as "Rosemary for Remembrance." Other flowers had their language also, and among the poets we find that many tender thoughts were expressed with flowers. Hyacinth for constancy the shalmsack to weave a spell over one, while the pansy was used to best express a lover's thoughts. All this language of flowers was a fashion, and like other fashions it passed. So much for the pure romance of flowers. There were uses for flowers which have remained with us. Sweet lavender to perfume a bride's hope chest or perfume a bride's hope chest or it is still in fashion. A spicy leaved geranium is grown in Palestine for the express purpose of carrying to church with one. The churches there are heavy with the sweet odor of rose geranium. This very geranium is obtainable in at least one nursery here, and is a very small-leaved sort, bearing in its season equally small pink quantities women receive only 60 to 70 per cent as much as men.

flowers. Grown as a pot plant it is most satisfactory.

TREE AVENUES

The catalpa tree which bears such gorgeous bouquets of creamy-white lavender throat flowers was a distinct garden fashion. Avenues of trees were a fashion we would do well to revive. On some of the older places about the country we see these lovely rows of trees creating a cool deep shadowy approach to a group of buildings. Roadways bordered with trees offer one of the greatest opportunities for "association" planting we have. Many of the smaller growing shrubby trees thrive best when protected by their bigger brothers of the horticultural world. These tender plants revel in the semi shade of some big tree.

This is one of the interesting things about going out in the woods for hikes; to be able to observe at close range the more thrifty growth of a native when protected by some more abundant plant or tree. The dainty maidenhair fern loves the rock cranny of a mountain stream or an eroded bank which creates by its irregular gulches deep shady, cavern-like grottos.

PLANT ASSOCIATIONS

This matter of plant associations is a very pleasant one to study. It had a certain place in the fashion of gardens, other than that of protection. Sweet scented flowers either of leaf or blossom were used to border paths. In the evening when they walked in the garden their full-skirted dresses brushing against the plants brought out their delicate odor. Everything was well ordered in the garden fashion of our grandmother's day, and one of the fashions of those by-gone gardens which we would do well to bring back is the old fashioned stile. Those romantic sets of steps which were used to ascend a fence or wall would be most decorative in our gardens with rows of potted plants marching up and down the steps.

In our grandmother's time potted plants were not used very widely for outdoor plants, and so the stiles were merely sets of steps, useful, but not picturesque. Today they would bring to a garden a distinct note of individuality.

Washington, Aug. 1: (Auto-caster)—The first session of the 76th Congress draws to its close with no patching up of the rift in the Democratic party.

The most severe blow to the President's aims was the failure of his conference with Senatorial leaders of both parties in a last desperate effort to win support for the changes in the Neutrality laws which Secretary Hull formulated and the President urged on Congress.

There is little doubt that the President was upset by the outcome of that conference, which closed with his declaration that he would see to it that the country understood that the responsibility rested on Congress.

TRIP PLANS CHANGED

One result of the President's failure to obtain the changes he asked in the Neutrality Act is a change in his plans for his trip to the West after adjournment. Originally he had intended to go to Alaska and make a speaking tour of the Northwest on his way back. Now it is understood that he will go only as far as the San Francisco World's Fair and return East immediately, to be on hand to call Congress into special session if the expected European war breaks out before the Summer is over.

WILL IT BE ENFORCED?

Perhaps the most important act of Congress, in the last fortnight of the session, was the passage of a bill introduced by Senator Carl A. Hatch of New Mexico to prevent federal workers, including W. P. A. workers and others on relief, to take part in party politics, under penalty of a $1,000 fine. Only the President, the Vice-President, Senators, Members of Congress, and officials whose positions make them responsible for formulating national and international policies - otherwise, the Cabinet - are exempt from the operation of this new law.

The net effect, if the Act is enforced, will be to keep all Federal office-holders from taking part in next Spring's primaries to choose delegates to the Presidential nominating conventions of either party, or from being delegates themselves to any party convention. That is calculated to destroy the ancient system whereby Presidents in office are renominated by conventions largely composed of office-holders.

Eighty-three Democrats joined the solid Republican block in the House to carry the Hatch bill by a vote of 242 to 133.

PASSED 242 TO 133

After the final passage of the Hatch bill by the Senate, forty or fifty Southern Democratic Senators crowded to the Vice-President's rostrum to congratulate him and Senator Hatch, the author of the bill. Vice-President Garner beamed his appreciation; for the new law gives him a greatly improved chance of getting delegates elected who will stand for him for the Presidential nomination.

The Garner Presidential boom is now fairly launched.

The second major piece of legislation in the closing weeks of the session was the adoption by the House of a resolution proposed by Representative Cox of Georgia, for the appointment of a special Congressional committee to sit during the recess and investigate the administration of the Wagner Labor Relations Act. Here, again, 104 Democrats, mostly from the South, voted with the Republicans to carry the resolution by a vote of 254 to 134.

The ground for this investigation is the charge, frequently made not only by employers but by the American Federation of Labor, that the Labor Relations Board has refused employers a hearing in labor disputes, and has discriminated against the A. F. of L. and other labor unions in favor of the C. I. O.

Simultaneously with this action by the House, the Senate passed the Logan bill providing for the judicial review by the courts of all administrative rules, decisions and orders made by any branch or instrumentality of the Executive arm of Government. This is aimed not only at the Labor Relations Board but at all other agencies.

Called "The Silver King"

The tarpon, known as "silver king," is the prize for which sportsmen travel hundreds of miles and spend a great deal of money, and, although the tarpon is not a food fish, its terrific fighting power, and its habit of leaping high in the air repeatedly until it is free or brought to the boat, make it famous. Tarpon are found inland, in brackish and fresh water, as well as in the salt water bays and on the shoals. The coast of Florida and along the Gulf of Mexico includes many noted tarpon grounds. Tarpon get to be six feet or more in length, and have been taken, with hook and line, weighing up to 240 pounds. Sportsmen frequently set free the smaller tarpon, not big enough for trophies, sometimes taking off one of the big scales as proof of the catch. Fred Everett painted the tarpon for the 1939 Wildlife Week poster stamps, distributed by the National Wildlife Federation.

NEW FROCKS

This charming dress (Pattern 8483) is youthful and smart without being frivolous. It is slenderizing. It has subtle detailing and graceful lines that make your figure prettier. Notice how charmingly soft is the shirred bodice, just full enough to make your bosom look nicely rounded.

The skirt, slim and paneled, is cut to a high and irregular waistline, drawn in, to fit with snug perfection, by the half belted that fasten in the back.

Make this of flat crepe, silk print or sheer, and also plan a summertime version in eyelet batiste or linen.

Pattern 8445 - This little dress has an air of quaintness about it that round little girls always find very becoming!

It's high at the waist, puffed of sleeve and shirred over the tummy with a suggestion of bolero in the cut. And just wait till you get the effect of those saucy bows under the chin.

Make this up in dimity, batiste, lawn or dotted Swiss, with dainty lace or embroidery at sleeves and neckline, and see if it doesn't become your small daughter's favorite dress for special occasions.

Attendance Grows at Symphony Concerts

Having passed the half way mark in the 1939 series of Midsummer Night Symphonies in the Ford Bowl, Balboa Park, the San Diego Symphony Orchestra Association and the Federal Music Project, co-sponsors of these annual musical events are looking forward to a continuance of the marked success of the first five concerts.

Attendance figures have increased steadily from the first concert and at the half way mark show a gain of nearly 35 per cent over attendance at this point last year and all concerned are unanimously of the opinion that a great deal of credit for this success is due to the popularity of Dr. Nikolai Sokoloff, who is conducting all the concerts this year.

Of course, full credit is due to the personnel of the Orchestra and also the excellence of performance by the eminent soloists who have appeared so far.

This Friday night, August 4th, Naoum Blinder will be guest violinist. Blinder for many years was concert master with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra and has met with outstanding success in concert tours throughout the North American continent. Blinder will play Bruch's Concerto for Violin in G Minor and Poeme by Chausson. For this concert, Dr. Sokoloff has also programmed "The Swan of Tuonela" by Sibelius, "Die Moldau" by Smetana and Chabrier's "Rhapsody Espana."

Next Tuesday night, August 8th, the concert will feature Brahms' Symphony No. 4 and after the intermission Dr. Sokoloff will present his guest, Lillian Steuber, internationally famous pianist. She will be heard in Haydn's Concerto for Piano and "Pagan Poem" by Loeffler. Lillian Steuber is a favorite with west coast music audiences, having appeared in Hollywood Bowl with the Philharmonic Orchestra, also with Dr. Sokoloff and the Los Angeles Federal Symphony where she scored heavily in her interpretation of the "Pagan Poem" by Loeffler.

The enlarged parking facilities near the Ford Bowl have been greatly appreciated by Symphony patrons this year. Concerts start promptly at 8:00 o'clock Ford Bowl box opens at 7:00 o'clock and advance seat sale at Theatres.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"What man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God." These words of Paul to the Corinthians are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

Bible selections in the Lesson-Sermon present these verses from the Psalms: "O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches. . . Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth. . . I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. . . Teach me to do thy will: for thou art my God; thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness."

The Lesson-Sermon includes also these passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the Bible the word Spirit is so commonly applied to Deity, that Spirit and God are often regarded as synonymous terms; and it is thus they are uniformly used and understood in Christian Science." "Spirit being God, there is but one Spirit, for there can be but one infinite and therefore one God."

Letters To The Editor

LOOK TO THE LEFT

Editor Lakeside Farmer: The mounting list of deaths and injuries caused by automobiles gives all of us who either drive a car or walk considerable concern (I hope) and we should give more thought to the seriousness of the problem than to pass it off with the "wise-crack" that pedestrians are rapidly being divided into two great classes - the quick, and the dead.

For some time now, due to the fact that here in San Diego County we are having an unwarranted number of accidents involving pedestrians, and especially elderly walkers, I'm wondering if something by way of a new slogan for BOTH pedestrians and automobile drivers might be in order.

It seems to me that we have educated ourselves and are still featuring the wise admonition to "keep to the right." But I cannot help but feel that we have actually gone too far in this matter by developing, perhaps unconsciously, the habit of looking to the right when we approach an intersection either on foot or in an auto, whereas we should ALWAYS look to the left in order to see what is coming and so avoid the danger that usually strikes us first from the LEFT side.

LAKESIDE FARMERMonster Melon is Picked by Gibson

When it comes to producing monster watermelons the Geo. Gibson ranch, Lakeside Farms may always be relied on. This year the largest one picked so far weighed 55 pounds.

"We've had them larger than that," remarked Mr. Gibson, as much as to say this monster melon was a mere nothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson invited some neighbors in on Sunday night to see the ceremony of cutting this big fellow and to join in the pleasure of eating it. While Mrs. Gibson distributed the pink-fleshed slabs Mr. Gibson became reminiscent. He recalled how years ago he had cut into a 72 pound melon produced on his farm and there had been others out-weighing the 55 pounder which was disposed of on Sunday. This melon was of the Chilean or cannonball variety.

FAMILY UNITED
AFTER 14 YEARS

What a surprise to receive a visit from three brothers all at once, especially when you have not seen them for fourteen years! This happened to Mrs. B. H. Haley when Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McCullough and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. McCullough all from Kansas City and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCullough and two sons, Billy and John, from Fort Worth, Texas, arrived to spend a few days.

When the time came for the family reunion to break up, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. McCullough took Mrs. Haley and her two children on a ten day tour of Yosemite and the San Francisco Fair. During the trip, Mr. McCullough, who is a motion picture operator, took beautiful pictures of scenes along the way.

Just before Mr. and Mrs. McCullough found it necessary to leave for home, lucky neighbors were invited to the Haley home to see moving pictures of the journey and also 1600 feet of shorts with sound equipment. These included pictures of the San Francisco Fire and earthquake, the first motion picture of a public event, the inauguration of President McKinley, and one of the few movies of the late Czar of Russia. The next day Mr. and Mrs. McCullough left for home, taking with them the Haley's daughter, Marise. On the way they visited Grand Canyon and other scenic points.

This Wednesday the Hays received a shock when a suspicious-looking telegram arrived. They hastily opened it to find that Marise had sent them "Greetings from above the clouds" from the top of Pike's Peak.

On Thursday Aug. 10, a meeting will be held at the Grammar School auditorium, La Mesa. There will be three speakers at both meetings, all of national reputation. A gathering is also announced for Escondido Sunday.

Did You Know?

By Dorothy Turner, pinch-hitting for Lorena Sands that there is a Lakeside in Ohio? We are willing to bet that their lake (if there is one) does not surpass our own Lake Lindo in rustic beauty.

that Mrs. Dick Williams of Glenview is spending several weeks at Imperial Beach? that Walter and Milton Costello get quite a kick out of helping young Charles Lucas herd the cows? The other day one of the boys was seen riding a cow bareback.

that Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sharpe of Boston have been entertaining Mrs. Pearl Beck and her son James from El Centro? They say they've been lots of places, enjoying every minute.

that Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Huffman sampled the ocean at Mission Beach last Sunday? that Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pepler and daughter Naomi of Glenview spent Thursday of last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver of Ocean Beach? The ocean breeze was a relief from our inland heat.

that Mrs. John Angel spent Thursday of this week visiting Mrs. Pete Brodie of Holtville at her San Diego apartment? that Glen Huffman of Palm City visited his cousins, Harvey and Orville Huffman of Lakeside last Sunday afternoon?

that Mrs. May Plummer of Glenview has just returned from a two weeks visit at the San Francisco Fair? that lemon cucumbers are far more tasty than the green variety? Mrs. George Gibson presented us with a bagful to prove it.

that Jim Rocchio, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rocchio, is spending the summer at North San Juan with his aunt and uncle? A good part of his time is spent swimming and mining for gold. Reports to his parents do not mention the discovery of any gold as yet, but they do indicate a general good time.

that we are still enjoying the avocados that were sent in by Mrs. F. H. Pepler of Glenview? that Mr. McGill is now on his way to recovery after suffering a stroke of apoplexy? that Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Vannoni from El Monte Park, held a birthday celebration for their daughter, Mrs. Charlie Dillon?

that Mr. and Mrs. George Head entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Angel for dinner on Sunday? that Bud Ashfield has returned from a thrilling two weeks at Pine Valley Lodge? that Mrs. Archie Webb and children have been visiting friends in Boston for several days?

that Mrs. R. T. Harrison who has given Lakeside friends concern because of her injured leg is improving, according to a report by Mrs. W. I. Mayfield? that our local miners, Leland Barker, Frank Magee, and Jim Kensella, are back with samples of Termaline, quartz, and mica to prove that they worked hard? A forty-foot excavation convinced them of good prospects for future mining.

that Mrs. Charles Lucas sent us some delicious eggplant? that Mr. and Mrs. Otis Barker were hosts at a dinner Monday night? Guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Conrad and Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Lantz.

that Mrs. DeWitt Griffith and Mrs. Blanche Griffith, of San Diego, were guests at the Time and Life Subscribers Library in Rockefeller Center, New York City?

that Mrs. D. E. Cox was one of the luncheon guests of Mrs. Rose W. Eckles of San Diego one day last week?

that Lake Lindo Park will be the scene of El Cajon Baptist Church Sunday School's annual picnic this Saturday?

who it was that spent Saturday night on the sand at Mission Beach? We'd like to know. Ask Fred Prindle he probably knows.

that Mrs. Fannie Corona is making two beautiful rugs? She is justly proud of these, for which she has industriously been combining just the right colors.

that Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hanson and daughter and friend of Long Beach arrived in their trailer to spend the night with Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Haley?

that the John Hartleys spent all day Sunday at Warner Hot Springs? They tell us that swimming in the hot and cold water was delightful.

that Louis Buehle is recovering nicely from a recent heart attack?

that Mr. Helm has a knife made out of Pyrex glass? His cousin brought the pink-tinted slicer down from the San Francisco Fair. The Postmaster tells us that although it has a blade three times as thick as that of an ordinary knife, it makes thin slices of fruits that crush easily. The owner claims that it will never become dull.

AUTO BREAKDOWN
BRINGS GUESTS

Mrs. Charles Lucas of Vista Drive had as dinner guests on Sunday Mrs. Julian Roffat and daughter. They were unexpected but welcome guests; and thereby hangs a story. It all happened because an auto broke down just above the big barn on the Gibson ranch.

Mr. Roffat started off in his car Sunday morning for National City where he was to join a party of business men for whom he is going to cook on a ten day trip to Mexico. He had Mrs. Roffat and their daughter with him, the plan being that Mrs. Roffat should drive the car home from National City. However the automobile broke down at an inconvenient moment. It came to a stop just below the Lucas ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas came to the rescue of their neighbors. Mr. Lucas drove Mr. Roffat to National City where the latter was able to join the party for the Mexico trip which he would have been unable to do but for this assistance. And Mrs. Roffat and daughter enjoyed dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Lucas.

Kenayston, arrived Saturday morning to take him home, Wayne declared his intention to come again before high school starts in the fall.

Besides the heat, the most striking item observed by Mr. Cook and his family was the abundance of watermelons. Up in Youbou, which is 130 to 140 miles north of Victoria, B. C. watermelons are seven cents a pound. The visitors enjoyed all varieties of Lakeside fruits but the avocados, about which they were not very enthusiastic.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook and their children arrived Saturday, July 23, and returned home Sunday.

Among the features of last nights meeting were the playing by Fortner's Orchestra, which was delightful, a talk by President Dean, reading of poems by Secretary Brown, salute to the flag and the singing of America.

Fires Burn Along

Four dangerous fires, believed to have been started by a lighted cigaret thrown from an auto, burned along the highway to Ramona yesterday and were responsible for the smoke that hung over the vicinity. Two were near Foster, five miles from here, one being back of the old Foster homestead. Another, at the foot of the Mussey grade, swept close to Bill Mayfield's place. A fourth fire was close to Fernville and spread up toward Barona.

A bee man near Foster made the discovery of the first fire and tried to stop it. Then he saw the second fire so he phoned for help. The CCC truck from Ramona responded and the Mt. Woodsen boys.
